GOD’S CONSTANT LOVE

Turning the calendar page from July to August can cause many of us to think of all the changes that happen in the next month. We go from vacations and travel to the start of school. Long, hot summer days turn a little cooler and a bit shorter by the end of this month. Before you know it, fall has arrived.

Yet, even in the midst of so much change throughout these 31 days, there’s at least one constant we can rely on. Every day of every month of every year, no matter the fullness of our calendars or the seasons of our lives, there is a God whose love for us remains consistent and steady. Or, as scripture puts it, “The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases. God’s mercies endure forever.” For better or worse, so much of our lives may change. But God’s love remains constant.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLEANUP

Saturday, Aug. 13, 10 a.m.-12 noon

The St. Paul corner of the world is a beautiful place. But with a location near busy streets, businesses, and schools, litter and debris accumulates.

On August 13, 10 a.m.-12 noon, St. Paul people will gather to pick up trash in the blocks surrounding the campus. This few-times-a-year event is called the Make It Yours Neighborhood Cleanup.

Grab a picker-upper, a snazzy safety vest, gloves, and a garbage bag. Head out with family and friends new and old to clear away things that should be recycled or pitched instead.

All supplies and snacks are provided. No need to sign up, just gather at the south entrance. Contact: Jules Irish, julesi@mchsi.com.

HUNGER AWARENESS WEEKEND | AUG 20 & 21

Food pantry gathering

Stock a paper bag with nonperishable food items and bring it to worship that weekend. The food gathered will be used to fill the shelves at the Friendly House Food Pantry.

Community Garden food share

Too many tomatoes? Not enough squash? St. Paul people can bring bounty from their gardens to share with others. The harvest left over will be donated to Café on Vine.

ALL THAT JAZZ:

Jazz Sunday at St. Paul is a soul-filled, foot-stomping, singing-at-the-top-of-your-lungs experience. Many thanks to our ChurchJazz friends for all the joyful jazz last weekend.

HELP IN THE COMMUNITY GARDEN

These plots of plants are grown to feed those who are food insecure. Volunteers are always needed to help with weeding, watering, and tending these veggies, herbs, fruits, and flowers. Come and help harvest on Saturday, Aug. 20, 10 a.m.-12 noon. Contact Matt Schroeder to help, schroeder4rivermont@yahoo.com.

SUNDAY MORNING FELLOWSHIP: Please join others for coffee, doughnuts, juice, and conversation in the gathering areas on the main level.

A BLUE BOOK, "Welcome to St. Paul," is situated in every pew near the aisle seat. Please take a moment to share your name and pass the book. As it returns to you, glance at other names and look for your chance to greet one another after worship. The warmth of your greeting can brighten the whole day.

NURSERY: We believe children belong in worship. But if your child needs a break, please assist other worshipers and seek out our staffed nursery in the "Kid's Corner" in the Library Commons. Silent pagers available. For nursing moms, a designated room is available to you, just 20 feet left of the elevator.

CHILDREN: Children's messages are a part of our Sunday services at 9:20 and 11 a.m. Special bulletins are available from an usher. Worship bags for children are at entrances to the Sanctuary.

COMMUNION: The Lord's Table is open to believers of all Christian traditions. Adults and children who do not commune are invited to come forward, crossing arms upon the chest for a blessing. Communion is distributed by a practice called intinction; please touch your wafer lightly to the wine. Gluten-free wafers are available at all stations. Grape juice is available on Sundays in the potery chalice at the station furthest left.

FAITH RESOURCES: A library and the nonprofit Book Corner on the main level provide wonderful resources for growing your faith. Check them out.

MEMBERSHIP: A one-session Membership Inquiry Class is offered once each month for those interested in exploring what membership at St. Paul involves. The next opportunity will be on Saturday, August 20, 9-11:30 a.m. OR Tuesday, Sept. 20, 6:30-9 p.m. Childcare is available on request. Sign up online at stpaulqc.org/signups, at the Info Center, or call 326-3547.
